S059739      In re James Robert Scott
on
Habeas Corpus

The Director of Corrections is ordered to show cause before this court, when the matter is placed on calendar, why petitioner is not entitled to relief because (1) trial counsel failed to investigate adequately and present a mental defense at the guilt phase, (2) trial counsel failed to investigate adequately and present mitigating evidence at the penalty phase, and (3) trial counsel's failure to investigate a mental defense and mitigating evidence rendered the advice to waive a jury uninformed and hence ineffective. The written return shall be filed in this court on or before September 11, 1998.

Sondra Locke et al., Real Parties in Interest

The court's order granting review in the above-captioned case specified that "[t]he issues to be argued before this court shall be limited to whether there is a constitutional right of public access to civil trials." The court hereby amends that order, and specifies the following preliminary additional issue: Does the trial court's exclusion order in this case violate Code of Civil Procedure, section 124?

Review was granted in this matter on May 21, 1997, and briefing ordered deferred pending disposition of the appeal in Shulman v. Group W Productions, Inc., S058629, which is now final ((1998) 18 Cal.4th 200.)

2) Whether the jury's findings in the first phase of trial on liability under Penal Code section 632, legally precluded maintenance of a common law intrusion claim.

3) Whether the jury instructions in the second phase of trial, on liability for intrusion, were prejudicially erroneous.
